

Afraid Of Death to Peace

My parents brought me up with the stories of the Bible and with the challenge of accepting Christ always before me. When I was nine I attended a summer camp that really brought home to me the eternal consequences of accepting or rejecting Christ as my saviour.

So, late in the Autumn of 1983, knowing God was speaking to me by his Holy Spirit I confessed the wrong I had done and surrendered my life to Jesus as my Lord.

From then I have trusted God for life decisions and it has been an adventure of living on purpose for Him.
